

- Pratt R et al. (2001) and the epic guideline development team. The epic Project: Developing Evidence-based Guidelines for Preventing Healthcare associated Infections. J of Hosp Infect 2001: 47 (supplement) S1-82. Available at www.epic.tvu.ac.uk.
- Pellowe CM et al. (2004) The epic project. Updating the evidence-base for national evidence-based guidelines for preventing healthcare-associated infections in NHS hospitals in England: a report with recommendations British Journal of Infection Control December 2004 vol. 5. Available at www.epic.tvu.ac.uk.
- Infection Control Nurses Association (2001) Guidelines for Preventing Intravascular Catheter-Related Infection, ICNA, Fitwise, Bathgate.
- Infection Control Nurses Association (2002) Hand decontamination guidelines, 2nd Ed, ICNA, Fitwise, Bathgate.
- Infection Control Nurses Association (2003) Asepsis; Preventing Healthcare Associated Infection, ICNA, Fitwise, Bathgate.
- Infection Control Nurses Association (2002) Protective clothing, principles and guidance, ICNA, Fitwise, Bathgate.
- Infection Control Nurses Association (2002) A comprehensive glove choice, 2nd Ed, ICNA, Fitwise, Bathgate.
- Infection Control Nurses Association (2002) Antibiotic resistance, theory and practice, ICNA, Fitwise, Bathgate.
- MMWR Recommendations and Reports Center for Disease Control (2002) Guidelines for the prevention of intravascular catheter-related infections. August 9: 1-26, available at www.cdc.gov/mmwr.
- Report of the joint Scottish Executive Health Department and NHS Scotland Working Group (August 2001) Managing the risk of healthcare associated infection in NHS Scotland, Edinburgh, Scotland.
- Device Bulletin DB2000(04) Single-use Medical devices: Implications and Consequences of reuse. Available at www.hfc.scot.nhs.uk.
- Pediatrics: Official Journal of the American Academy of Pediatrics – <http://pediatrics.aappublications.org>.
- Department of Health – www.dh.gov.uk.
- National Audit Office. The management and control of hospital associated infection in Acute NHS Trusts in England. London: The Stationery Office; 2000. Available at www.nao.org.uk.
- National Audit Office. Improving patient care by reducing the risk of hospital associated infection. A progress report. London: The Stationery Office; 2004. Available at www.nao.org.uk.
- Department of Health. Winning Ways: working together to reduce healthcare associated infection in England. London: The Stationery Office; 2003.
- Department of Health. Saving Lives: A delivery programme to reduce health care associated infection including MRSA: Skills for implementation. Available at www.dh.gov.uk.
- epic – www.epic.tvu.ac.uk.
- Infection Control Nurses Association – www.icna.co.uk.
- 3M Health Care – www.3mhealthcare.co.uk.

References:

- Emmerson AM et al. (1996) The Second National Prevalence Survey of Infections in Hospitals – overview of results. J of Hosp Infect, 32, 175-190.
- Pratt R et al. (2001) and the epic guideline development team. The epic Project: Developing Evidence-based Guidelines for Preventing Healthcare associated Infections. J of Hosp Infect 2001: 47 (supplement) S1-82. Available at www.epic.tvu.ac.uk.
- Inglis TJJ (2000) Microbiology & Infection Churchill Livingstone, New York, USA.
- MMWR Recommendations and Reports Center for Disease Control (2002) Guidelines for the prevention of intravascular catheter-related infections. August 9: 1-26, available at www.cdc.gov/mmwr.
- Plowman R et al. (1999) Socio-economic burden of hospital acquired infection, Public Health Laboratories, London.
- National Audit Office. The management and control of hospital associated infection in Acute NHS Trusts in England. London: The Stationery Office; 2000. Available at www.nao.org.uk