Topic:

3M™ Scotchlite™ Reflective Material – 8906 Silver Fabric Improvement.

Product Affected:

Scotchlite reflective material – 8906 silver fabric

Improvement:

Beginning later this year, we will begin shipping improved Scotchlite reflective material – 8906 silver fabric, replacing the current product of the same name. Both the current and the improved products have the same specifications, as outlined in the 3M™ Scotchlite™ Reflective Material – Fabrics Technical Data Sheet.

Noticeable Differences:

This improved product is stiffer and will be easier to sew, allowing for improved productivity. Based upon a variety of tests, we do not anticipate a noticeable difference in performance between the two products. Although no product specifications have been changed, we do recommend that you test this material appropriately to ensure it meets your specification.

Product Certifications:

The new improved version has been certified to a wide selection of standards; please consult the website of the country of interest through 3M.com for more information on regional standards or contact 3M Technical Service for additional assistance.

Care Instructions:

The care label recommendation for Scotchlite reflective material – 8906 silver fabric remains the same.
