

Hearing Protection Devices Must Fit Properly And Be Worn Correctly

Hearing Protector Fitting Tip

When either an earplug or earmuff is properly fitted, the sound of your own voice should change, becoming deeper, hollow or muffled.

If you don't hear the change, or if it isn't the same in both ears, you have not obtained a proper fit and should retry fitting.