

3M Graphics Instruction Bulletin Reorganization

The 3M Commercial Branding and Transportation Division (CBTD) has implemented a comprehensive review and reorganization of the instruction bulletins in the 3M Graphics Products portfolio. As such, all instruction bulletins published prior to this review have been rendered obsolete, as their material has been consolidated and incorporated into a smaller, more streamlined set of new instruction bulletins with updated technical guidance.

The entirety of the content in the bulletin previously available at this link has been superseded by the new 3M Instruction Bulletin Application: Trailers and users should reference that document for the most current technical guidance.

For a complete list of all instruction bulletin changes, see the CBTD Graphics Instruction Bulletin Reorganization Technical Bulletin.
