

Using abrasives. PPE Guide.

Eye protection

Protect your eyes from sparks and other airborne debris

Hearing protection

Protect your hearing from noise from machinery and tool use

Long-sleeved clothing

Protect bare skin from airborne debris

Respirator

Protect your lungs from fine particles produced using abrasives

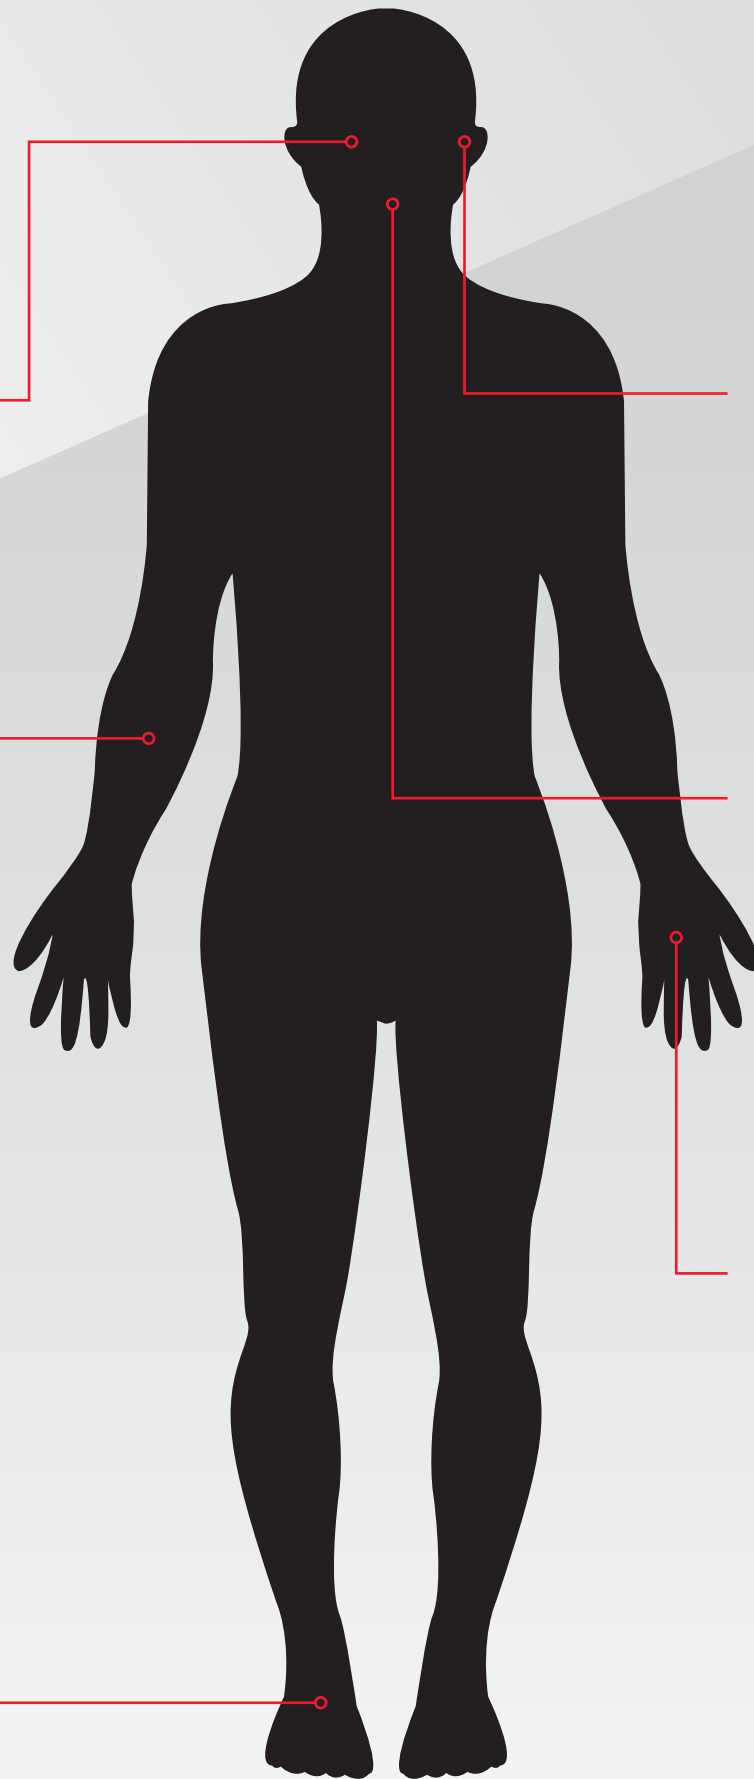

Safety shoes

Protect your feet from falling heavy objects

Hand protection

Protect your hands from sparks and other debris

Additional PPE for cutting and grinding

Apron

Additional protection must be worn to protect operator from sparks created by cutting and grinding products

Full face visor

Protect your whole face from the added dangers of using cutting and grinding products

Any products suggested in this communication are for general guidance only. It is ultimately the responsibility of the employer to select the most appropriate PPE based on a full risk assessment. Always read the product performance and limitations before selection and use.

For further information on how to reduce abrasive hazards in the workplace, please contact your 3M sales representative or visit www.3M.co.uk/safetybuiltin

SAFETY
BUILT IN