Tegaderm™

Brand Wound Care Solutions

When monitoring an incision, you need the whole picture.

3M™ Tegaderm™ Absorbent Clear Acrylic Dressings

Maintaining an ideal healing environment and monitoring surgical incisions are critical steps in reducing post-operative surgical site infections. For small to large incisions, Tegaderm™ Absorbent Clear Acrylic Dressings offer a waterproof¹, transparent² barrier – allowing active monitoring and early intervention without disturbing the incision³. Plus, extended wear time⁴ allows patients to shower and return more quickly to daily activities¹.

Available in five sizes for complete coverage of incisions up to 28 cm (11 in).

3M™ Tegaderm™ Absorbent Clear Acrylic Dressings

At 3M, we partner with providers to develop surgical solutions that have the power to transform patient outcomes through science, including the post-operative protection and care of surgical incisions. Choose from our full line of transparent Tegaderm™ Absorbent Clear Acrylic Dressings for a variety of applications or procedures.

Enhanced monitoring

Designed with a clear film and acrylic absorbent pad composed of a hydrophilic polymer⁵, Tegaderm absorbent clear acrylic dressings give providers and patients the ability to monitor incisions for early signs of infection.²

Extended protection

Wear time of up to 28 days⁴ gives patients extended protection beyond their initial hospital stay, and supports early showering¹ without removing the dressing.

Optimal healing environment

Helps protect from external contaminants, bodily fluids, bacteria, viruses and water ingress¹, plus is designed to absorb moderate exudate levels² to promote an optimal healing environment.⁶
