Burnout harms physicians' well-being, reported downstream consequences that include:

1. Providers Want Innovation, Disruption for Revenue Cycle Management (revcycleintelligence.com)
2. Physician burnout costs industry $4.6B annually | Healthcare Dive
3. Connected Medicine
4. Assessment of Physician Well-being, Part One: Burnout and Other Negative States (nih.gov)
5. Survey: Half of U.S. Providers Experience Burnout (jamaica.org)
6. Clinical documentation integrity (CDI) prioritization.
7. Proactive clinical insights delivered at the point of care minimize administrative burden and burnout.
8. Proactive, AI-powered CDI.
9. Proactive nudges using clinical protocols help capture documentation gaps and risks.
10. Proactive, AI-powered CDI.

Many downstream benefits:

Starting at the point of care

Physicians

- In-workflow nudges powered by advanced AI close care and revenue gaps.
- Improved documentation and revenue cycles.
- Lower administrative burden.
- Promotes physician productivity.
- Provides nudges that are highly clinically relevant.
- Eases complexity, provides single mid-revenue platform.
- Improves physician quality scores.

CDI and HIM teams

- Improved accuracy and completeness.
- Improved in-workflow and out-of-workflow productivity.
- Improved physician performance.
- Improved physician satisfaction.
- Improved front-end processes.

Chief medical information officer

- Improved provider engagement.
- Improved physician satisfaction.
- Improved care coordination.
- Improved physician performance.

Chief quality officer

- Improved quality standards.
- Improved survival.
- Improved readmission rates.
- Improved adverse event rates.

Chief financial officer

- Improved financial sustainability.
- Improved financial performance.
- Improved revenue cycle outcomes.
- Improved cost margins.

Chief information officer

- Improved information management.
- Improved data management.
- Improved patient care.
- Improved administrative operations.

Bridging the gap between physicians and CDI teams

- Clinical documentation integrity (CDI) prioritization.
- Proactive clinical insights delivered at the point of care minimize administrative burden and burnout.
- Proactive nudges using clinical protocols help capture documentation gaps and risks.
