

Cut out the trivia cards and test the whole family's cold weather and indoor air quality knowledge!

True or False:
Indoor air quality is always worse in the summer than in the
colder seasons.

Answer:
False¹

Tip: Before the cold weather hits, hire a professional to service your HVAC system, and keep up with air filter changes.

What is thundersnow?

Answer: Thundersnow is
when lightning occurs
within snowstorms²

At what level should you keep your home's
humidity?

Answer:
Between 30 and 50%³

*Tip: Fix any leaks that may let moisture into the house
as soon as you notice them.*

True or False:
It can take a snowflake
up to two hours to reach the ground.

Answer:
True⁴

Where is the best place to warm up
the car during cold
months?

Answer:
Outside the garage⁵

*Tip: To avoid dangerous gas seeping into your home, back
the car out of the garage as soon as you start it.*

True or False:
The largest recorded
snowflake to fall
was 15 inches across
and 8 inches thick.

Answer:
True⁶

Sources:

1. Harvard Health Publishing
2. NOAA National Severe Storms Laboratory
3. Environmental Protection Agency

4. National Geographic
5. Iowa State University
6. Guinness World Records

